After a mid-morning snack of tasty morsels with the staff, Sims got right down to business with some “tasty” songs from her repertoire, including, “Eighty Acres of Stars,” “Everything I Know About Leavin’,” and the spiritual, “Everything, Everywhere.” “It is truly an honor to be here with you!,” Sims stated in response to the enthusiastic applause, before bidding everyone goodbye.

“Everything I Know About Leavin’” is at radio now, and the CD, Annie, is slated for release on October 10.
